The JAY-BE® Retro Remote Controlled Sofa Bed brings together the best of traditional upholstery with iconic styling and high quality British engineering. This sofa bed is unquestionably one of the most luxurious sofa beds in the world today. At the click of a button, the JAY-BE® Retro Remote Controlled Sofa Bed will transform into a luxury everyday bed in seconds. Whether you are looking to treat your guests to the perfect nights sleep, have an easy life or you simply enjoy having the best, this Retro sofa bed is sure to impress. As well as unparalleled convenience, the JAY-BE® Retro offers a superior level of comfort, not normally associated with sofa beds.

The deep sprung mattress, topped with luxury comfort layers provides real bed comfort, suitable for everyday use, and the seats are made with fibre wrapped Reflex Foam to offer total support and long term durability. All JAY-BE® sofas are made in the UK and every detail is considered. As well as looking stylish and offering supreme comfort, JAY-BE® use premium fabrics which are produced in Huddersfield, West Yorkshire, England. Huddersfield is respected worldwide for producing some of the finest fabrics available and specialist production techniques, combined with durable threads guarantee that a JAY-BE® sofa will not only look great but stand the test of time.
